The football season lingers in the lap of basketball.

Another human life sacrificed to deer hunting, and the 1915 season in Vermont only half over!

Turkey was disposed of so easily by Americans on Thursday that the entente allies should take notice.

At the present rate of $1,000 acquisition, Washington county court will be a distinct money-maker this term.

Andy Carnegie's determination to die a poor man finds him still alive on his 80th birthday, which arouses the suspicion that Andy hasn't parted with his last cent as yet.

Nearly a thousand people visited the crest of Camel's Hump during the season just concluded. There would have been tens of thousands if the grandeur of the panorama there unfolded had been more widely known.

A visit to the front in France seems to have made John E. Redmond, the Irish Nationalist leader, a tremendous shouter for allies' success. He returned to England brimful of confidence that the allies are going to win.

The Times congratulates the Brattleboro Reformer on turning out an edition of 16 pages on Wednesday, Nov. 24. The edition, judged from the editorial and the mechanical standpoints, was one of the finest presented by a Vermont newspaper in recent years, the matter being interesting and well distributed through the 16 pages. Moreover, the 70 columns of advertising matter indicated that there were "sinews of war" back of the efforts. On the latter condition, too, the contemporary is to be congratulated because it shows that the merchants and business interests of Brattleboro appreciate the value of such a fine paper as The Reformer.

Several of the prominent newspapers in Germany are showing a surprising frankness in discussing the war, especially as regards the futility of further conflict. So frank are the recent utterances that the person who has been led to believe that Germany is ruled by a mailed fist wonders such journals are allowed to be published. It is probable that such utterances reflect rather accurately the sentiment among many German people at the present time, because in any country the newspapers mirror public opinion as a general thing. Germany is becoming satiated with war, as are all the other countries engaged; but in Germany, very likely, the public clamor for peace is considerably more pronounced because of the growing shortage of some articles of food.

Just the kind of clothing that you'd enjoy having your boy wear. We've seen all the best that's made for this season and picked the choice patterns. For boys from three years up, here's a very attractive showing, and we hope for the pleasure of showing them to you.

You get your full money's worth in these mackinaws, they are so continually useful, attractive and style all the while.

This season new colors, new patterns, and improvement in the cut makes them more popular than ever.

Prices, $5 to $12.50. Sweaters, too, in the new designs. Regular styles, all colors—V-neck and ring neck.

IT'S TIME FOR OVERCOATS and they are here in splendid array. Come in and array yourself in one and see what the mirror has to say—no adverse reflections. Wear it and see what your friends have to say. If it doesn't discount all criticism, return it and get your money back. Prices, $15, $20 and $25.

There is to be an extension school of agriculture held in town, probably at grange hall, continuing for five days, Dec. 6 to 10. This meeting is held under the direction of the extension service of the University of Vermont in co-operation with the Orange County Farmers' association. Farmers who wish to learn of new methods of farming and to gain by the experience of others in many lines of farm work are urged to attend as many of these meetings as possible. On the same dates there is to be a school of home economics for women, in charge of competent instructors. Further notice of the speakers at these meetings will be given later.

Clyde H. Morse has moved from one of Mrs. Evelyn Rowell's tenements in Mill village to the upper tenement in Mrs. Bancroft's house on Beckett extension, off lower Main street.

Frank St. John, who works for George W. Lynde on the west hill, holds the record in this vicinity for shortest time taken in getting a deer. He started from home one day for a hunt and was back with his game in an hour and 10 minutes.

B. W. Hooker & Co. of Barre finished the work of laying the carpet in the auditorium and vestibule of the Congregational church on Tuesday and the usual services will be resumed on Sunday, the 28th.

Congregational Church—Morning worship at 10:45; special sermon and music on the occasion of the reopening of the church; subject of sermon, "A Memorial and a Prophecy." Sunday school at noon. Let all classes rally for a full attendance. Union meeting at 7:30 p. m. Topic for C. E. meeting at 7:30 on Tuesday evening, "Home Mission Work To Be Done in Our Community." All are heartily welcome to these services.

Mrs. Flora E. Jewett, who has been housekeeper for George C. Earle for several weeks, has finished her engagement and it is supposed that she has gone to Burlington.

H. E. Miles, representing the publishing house of George C. Clow Co. of Philadelphia, is visiting at H. A. Thurburn's.

Mrs. Laura Ainsworth and Miss Mary Waterman, who have been in Claremont, N. H., for a short visit to relatives, returned home on the 24th inst.

Harry M. Lasell is having a vacation from his duties in Frank A. Downs' store and will visit relatives in Northfield and Chelsea before his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram S. Drury went to Woodsville, N. H., to spend Thanksgiving and will be away from home for the remainder of the week.

George Brigham of the Jones & Lamson Machine Co. of Springfield, is the guest of Edwin C. Smith for a few days.

ABOUT 300,000 BABIES DIE BEFORE ONE YEAR

The Census Bureau estimates that 300,000 babies died in this country last year before the age of one year, and it is stated that one-half of these deaths were needless if all mothers were strong and infants were breast-fed.

Expectant mothers should strive to increase their strength with the strength-building fats in Scott's Emulsion which improves the blood, suppresses nervousness, aids the quality of milk, and feeds the very life cells.

Physicians prescribe Scott's Emulsion; it is doubly important during nursing. No alcohol. Every druggist has it. Insist on Scott's—the white-food medicine. No advanced prices. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J. 15-27

The City hospital at Barre the 23rd, and was operated on for gallstones the same day. The operation was successful and the patient is doing well.

Ellery F. LaBell, who moved to Barre several months ago, has returned to his farm, known to our older residents as the Hiram Hooker place.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. Godfrey spent Thanksgiving day in Barre as the guests of their former townsman, James E. Gregory.

Howell Roberts and his sister, Mrs. Roy Potter, and their mother, Mrs. John Roberts, all of Granville, N. Y., returned to their home the 23rd after a few days' visit at Carl W. Seaver's.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Marshall Jackson of Waterbury are in town for a few days and are staying with Mrs. Jackson's father, W. H. Lougee.

Rev. and Mrs. William N. Roberts spent Thanksgiving at the old homestead in Chelsea, as the guests of Mr. Roberts' brother, George B. Roberts.

Miss Ruth Martin is home for a few days from her school in Bakersfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Edson and son, James Leo, of East Montpelier, were in town the 25th and took Thanksgiving cheer at George T. Colby's. Other guests at the table were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Colby, who have sold their farm and are soon to remove to Pennsylvania; Mrs. Fanny N. Wilber, now in her 90th year; Mrs. W. H. Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wilber.

Schools in town are to open for the winter term on Monday, Nov. 29, and continue for four weeks, with a recess one week at Christmas.

TALK OF THE TOWN

See those flannel waists at Abbott's. Skates on sale to-day. Reynolds & Son.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: Mrs. M. J. Terry of South Ryegate, Me.; Runkel of New York City, W. H. Stetson of Boston, W. S. Haight and G. Vance of Danville, Miss Helen Folsom of Brandon, Edward Mokelke of Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Wilson of Philadelphia, Miss Mildred Dearing of Bethel, J. C. Starbuck of Boston, F. P. Rowell of Woodsville, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Applegate of Lebanon, N. H., John B. Woods of Middlebury, R. E. Washburn of Bellows Falls, and W. C. Whitney of Somerville, Mass.

A holiday calm settled down over police headquarters with the advent of the day of Thanksgiving and except for an occasional visitor thrust by circumstances through the door of the station, the well-known calm was seldom interrupted. Officers report that peace and quiet reigned on the streets through the recess. George May was arraigned before magistrate H. W. Scott in city court Thursday morning on an intoxication charge, to which he pleaded guilty, paying a $5 fine and costs of $6.40. He was arrested Wednesday night by Officer Harry Gamble. Angus Campbell of Graniteville, arrested Thursday afternoon by Officer David Henderson, pleaded guilty to a subsequent offense this morning and arranged to pay a $15 fine and costs of $5.70. Edward J. Smith of Lyme, N. H., who was taken in custody by Officer Henderson on an intoxication charge yesterday, chose a jail sentence to-day in lieu of paying $15 and costs of $5.90.

ITCHING, BLISTERED SKIN-ERUPTION ALL HIS LIFE, NOW CURED

Nov. 19, 1914:—"All my life, until about a year ago, I was troubled with blisters and sores over my entire body. The itching and burning was terrible, and I could hardly sleep. I used many treatments that were unsuccessful and did not give me any relief. I started using Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and they helped me wonderfully. I WAS RELIEVED AT ONCE, and after about two dozen applications I can say that I was free and cured of that awful disease. My skin now is as clear as anybody's."—(Signed) Geo. Whitcher, Jr., R. F. D. No. 54, Caledonia, N. Y. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

IS YOUR TOILET SOAP SAFE?

Many toilet soaps contain harsh, injurious alkali. Resinol Soap contains absolutely no free alkali, and to it is added the Resinol medication. This gives it soothing, healing properties which clear the complexion, comfort tender skins and keep the hair healthy.

WANTED

Proposals for Granite Facing for State House Office Building.

Sealed proposals for furnishing, or furnishing and erecting the granite facing of the supreme court, library and office building for the state of Vermont at Montpelier will be received by the secretary of the commission, Horace F. Graham, auditor of accounts, at his office in the State House at Montpelier, Vermont, until 12 o'clock noon, Monday, December 20, 1915.

Proposals for this work are to be made from plans and specifications made by Densmore & LeClear, architects and engineers, 88 Broad street, Boston, Massachusetts, and Rialto building, Montpelier, Vermont, which plans and specifications and proposal forms may be seen at the Montpelier and Boston offices of the architects and engineers on and after Wednesday, December 1, 1915.

Plans and specifications will be sent upon application to Densmore & LeClear, 88 Broad street, Boston, Mass.

A certified check in the sum of $200.00, payable to the state of Vermont, will be required with each bid and a surety bond with the contract. The checks of the bidders will be returned to them as soon as the contract is awarded.

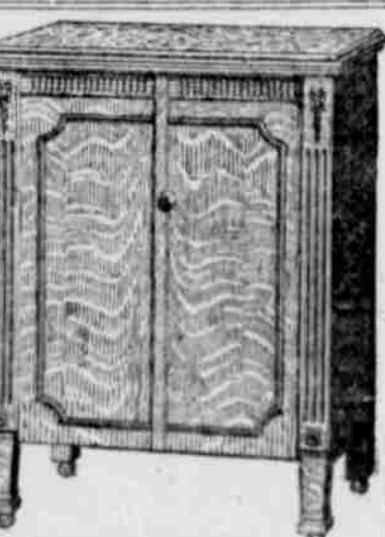

Bids will be received only on the basis of using Vermont granite cut in the state of Vermont, and must be accompanied by a sample of the granite proposed to be used, 12 inches square and 4 inches thick.

All proposals should be plainly marked, "Proposals for the Supreme Court, Library, and Office Building for the State of Vermont."

The bids will be opened at the State House, Montpelier, Vermont, on Tuesday, December 21, 1915, at 1:30 o'clock p. m.

The commission for the erection of the above building reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

HORACE F. GRAHAM, Secretary.
